

MISSING GRANVILLE MAN IS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN KILLED

Striking Similarity Between His Description and That of a Body Found This Week in Chicago

Lead the Police and Detectives to Believe That the Corpse is That of Wealthy Real Estate Man of Granville.

Was P. B. Smith, the missing Granville man, murdered in Chicago? The police department of that city believes so, as shown in the following telegram received by the Advocate Thursday afternoon:

Chicago, May 16.—The discovery of a striking similarity in the description of P. B. Smith, the missing wealthy real estate dealer of Granville, Ohio, who is believed to have been slain, and that of the murdered man whose body was discovered in Ogden slip Wednesday, leads the police believe today that the body is that of Mr. Smith. Relatives of the missing man were notified today.

Mr. Smith came here in April to close several real estate deals. He disappeared one day with a large sum of money.

Notwithstanding the fact that a large number of detectives, furnished by the police department of Chicago and also by private agencies, have scoured every part of Chicago in their search for the missing Granville man, Mr. P. B. Smith, no definite clew as to what has become of him has been learned, although he has been missing nearly a month. A telegram to the Advocate from Chicago Thursday says that the detectives have been stimulated to renew efforts in their endeavors to find the man by the offer of a reward of $1,000 for information that will locate him. While it is not definitely known, it is the opinion of those who are in a position to know, that the reward is offered by the family of the missing man.

Rev. R. B. Smith of El Paso, Texas, a son-in-law of the man who so mysteriously disappeared, is in Chicago, and is diligently engaged in prosecuting the search, and is lending valuable assistance to the detectives. Several slight clues concerning the disappearance of Mr. Smith have been obtained, but in the end amounted to nothing. However, the members of the family are still hopeful that their dear one will be eventually restored to them.

SUICIDE PACT RESULTS FATALLY

Des Moines, Iowa, May 16.—Bound by an oath taken when at school together, that when one died all should follow, four Iowa girls attempted suicide Wednesday. Two of them are dead. The girls live in different parts of the state, but developments show that all the attempts were at exactly the same hour in precisely the same way and for the same reason:

THE DEAD.
Kate Farrell of Birmingham.
Kittie Broell of Cox Creek.
The dying: Elizabeth Fletcher of Bonaparte; Lily Milburn of Darby.
All the girls took strychnine just at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. Ill health is reported to have been the cause of the suicide in each case. Kate Farrell was the daughter of Jas. Farrell, a well-to-do farmer residing near Birmingham.

Kittie Broell took strychnine and then to make death more certain blew her head partly off with a shotgun. Her sister had just died and she grieved over the fact until she became ill.

The most sensational case was that of Lily Milburn, formerly Lily Farrell, who it is claimed ended her life because she had been forced to marry a man she did not love.

Elizabeth Fletcher of Bonaparte was of the same age and in ill health.

ACTIVE VOLCANOES CAUSE PANIC.

Naples, May 16.—With the volcanoes Stromboli and Etna in active eruption residents of this portion of Italy are becoming alarmed lest the disturbances may spread to Mount Vesuvius. A close watch has been kept upon this ancient "terror" ever since the other two volcanoes began last terrible disaster a year ago is fresh in the minds of all Italians and they live in the greatest dread of Vesuvius. So far there has been no sign from this volcano, but the predictions made by Prof. Perret, of Brooklyn, that still greater volcanic activities are to be expected in the near future has caused the greatest alarm. There has been a slight decrease in the flow of lava from Stromboli in the last day or two and residents of that island are becoming calmer. The panic has by no means abated, however. While Stromboli appears to be quieting down, Mount Etna is becoming more violent. Dispatches received today from Taormina say that great clouds of smoke and ashes are being emitted from the crater. This fresh disturbance taken in connection with Prof. Perret's declaration that Etna would soon become violent has added to the panic among the natives and residents of that vicinity.

MRS. LINGAFELTER GETS NEW TRIAL AT COSHOCTON

CIRCUIT COURT DECIDES THAT THE LOWER COURT ERRED IN THE CASE.

Prosecutor Fitzgibbon Says He Will Take the Case to the Supreme Court at Once.

Coshocton, May 16.—Judges Taggart and Donahue, in circuit court Wednesday evening, ordered a new trial for Mrs. Mary Lingafelter, the Newark forger, convicted here last November and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

The judges, in handing down their decision, said that there is no statute in Ohio that in such case makes an accessory guilty after the fact. It was argued by the defense that the conviction had been mainly secured in this manner.

The decision hinged upon considering as evidence certain stubs in a receipt book which had been made out to conceal the forgery. Robert Lingafelter had written the forged receipts and his mother the stubs. No evidence was introduced to show that Mrs. Lingafelter had written these stubs until after the son had committed the forgery.

The court ruled that Judge Campbell had erred when he charged the jury that it made no difference when Mrs. Lingafelter had filled out the stubs, whether it was at the same time or the next year.

Prosecutor Fitzgibbon says:

"I will at once take steps to prosecute error upon this finding in the Supreme court. It is about time that our highest court should determine finally whether or not an accessory after the fact cannot be prosecuted and punished under the Alder and Abetter Statutes. The question has not been fairly met before in this state, but it was placed before the Common Pleas court, squarely and that court decided in favor of the state. The Circuit court has overruled that finding and decides in favor of Mrs. Lingafelter. Now we will have the highest court determine the matter. It will be remembered that in the investigation of the Association's books made by Mr. Webster, no wrong doing was charged against Mrs. Lingafelter, except in making these entries which, in the opinion of the state were designed solely to conceal Robert Lingafelter's forgery and prevent his arrest and prosecution. I do not care to discuss this decision any further than to say that the Supreme court will be called upon to pass finally upon the matter."

CARUSO GIVEN OVATION.

London, May 15.—London holds nothing against Enrico Caruso the noted Italian tenor because of his performance last night in the New York Central park "monkey house." This was demonstrated in the reception given Caruso when he made his first appearance of the season at Covent Garden theatre, last night. La Boheme was the production, and Caruso was given an ovation. In an interview Caruso is quoted as saying that his only worry at present is for his oldest son. The youngster is now 9 years old, and intends to make any progress in music.

Sessions In Columbus Thursday Morning.

Columbus, O., May 16.—For the first time in over a hundred years, the entire Presbyterian body of the United States was represented when the 119th general assembly of the Presbyterian church opened its sessions today. The Cumberland and general Presbyterian churches split originally on doctrinal questions. These differences have been adjusted and the united church now has 10,000 churches and 9,300 ministers.

Today 960 delegates were present representing 1,250,000 communicants.

Dr. W. H. Roberts, Philadelphia, will probably be chosen moderator, Nashville, Kansas City, Dallas, Atlantic City, and Seattle, Wash. are candidates for the meeting of the next assembly.

Columbus, O., May 16.—A spirited contest for the office of moderator promises to be one of the features of the annual session of the Presbyterian general assembly, which convened today. The opening session was devotional. Dr. Ira K. Landrith of Nashville, Tenn., moderator of the last general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which a year ago voted to unite with the Presbyterian church, preached the annual sermon. The election of a moderator will take place this afternoon. The candidates mentioned are Rev. William Henry Roberts, D. D., of Philadelphia, who has been stated clerk of the Presbyterian assembly since 1893, Dr. William H. Black, president of Missouri Valley college at Marshall, Mo., and former moderator of the Cumberland Presbyterian assembly, and Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of Ohio state university.

TRIAL AT BOISE IS INTERRUPTED BY THE DEATH

OF THE FATHER OF ONE OF THE CHIEF MEMBERS OF HAY- WOOD'S COUNSEL.

RESUMED THIS AFTERNOON

Attorneys For Both Sides Are Confident That a Jury Will Be Secured By Saturday.

Boise, May 16.—No session of the Haywood murder trial was held this morning owing to the funeral of the father of Howard Nugent, one of Haywood's counsel. The examination of talesmen was resumed at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Both sides hope to have a jury by the end of the week.

There still is every reason to hope that a jury will have been selected before court adjourns on Saturday afternoon. Clarence Darrow, who examined George T. Maw, the talesman taking the seat, announced that he had finished with him, but would not pass him for cause until today. It is believed that the defense proposes to make some investigation as to alleged conversations which the talesman admitted with neighbors and relatives on the subject of the case against Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone. Maw is a former resident of Nebraska and a Democrat who has lived in Idaho for the last six years. A majority of the talesmen so far examined have said that they belonged to no church.

Boise, Idaho, May 16.—The following jurors are in the box, passed by the state and defense to try William D. Haywood. Each is subject to peremptory challenge by state or defense. Each side has 10 peremptory challenges and the state has used one: A. L. Ewing, carpenter; George F. May, farmer; Samuel D. Gillman, farmer; Walter Shaw, farmer; Allen Pride, farmer; William McGuffin, coal and feed dealer; Orin Cole, farmer; G. H. McIntyre, farmer; W. H. Bisby, farmer; A. P. Burnes, farmer; W. M. Ridge, farmer; Samuel F. Russell, farmer.

The uncovering of a vein of prejudice against Harry Orchard and his testimony during the examination of talesmen led up to a sharp wrangle between counsel and involved the name of President Roosevelt in an acrimonious discussion. The incident began with Samuel Wingate, the eleventh talesman, in the hands of the defense for examination-in-chief. Questioning had proceeded a short distance when it developed that Mr. Wingate was biased against Orchard and unwilling to accept the testimony which it is expected he will give against the prisoner. The defense naturally tried at once to show that Wingate's state of mind on the subject was not such as would warrant his removal from the box, but when the talesman repeated to the hands of the state, Senator Borah quickly drew from him the flat-footed statement that he could not, under any circumstances, give credence to Orchard's testimony. Wingate was upon this excused, the defense excepting to the court's ruling and from thence forward, the state was particular to test all talesmen on the point.

Tilt Between Counsel.

The question recurred when Senator Borah put the question to Talesman William McGuffin, who succeeded Talesman Henry to seat No. 6 after the latter had been evicted for implied bias on testimony of R. C. Lovelace—the first witness called—who swore that Henry had told him that Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone would not have been brought here if "they had not been mixed up in the case." Clarence S. Darrow of the defense objected to the question and Senator Borah sharply replied: "After the immense latitude that the defense has taken in regard to McPartland, Taft and Roosevelt, I did not think they would stick on any technicality at this late day."

"We did not ask as to the effect of McPartland's testimony," said Darrow and Richardson together. "If Roosevelt is to be brought here to testify we might have something more to say," went on Mr. Richardson. "Mr. Roosevelt can take care of himself wherever he is," retorted Borah. "Well I don't know about that," said Darrow.

Judge Wood directed counsel to proceed with the case, but Mr. Darrow, who was sitting, took formal exceptions to the remarks of Mr. Borah. "I will be glad to eliminate Roosevelt if you will," replied Borah. "He was brought into the case by the defense."

"He came in himself," said Mr. Richardson. "He is 2,000 miles away and he writes letters." "He was brought in by his own butting in," added Darrow.

PLEA OF GUILTY BY ABE RUEF AVOIDS A TRIAL

PROSECUTION ASTONISHED BY SAN FRANCISCO BOSS' ACTION.

HE MADE NO CONFESSION

But Said the Strain of Approaching Trial Was Too Great for His Health.

San Francisco, May 16.—Abraham Ruef, better known as "Abe" Ruef, once the recognized dictator of municipal affairs in San Francisco, pleaded guilty to the charge of extortion in Judge Dunne's department of the superior court. Sentence will be pronounced upon him two weeks hence.

After a private conference with his four attorneys in Judge Dunne's private chambers, and after they had withdrawn from his case because of the resolution he had taken to change his plea and avoid trial, Ruef, to the utter astonishment of the prosecution, arose in court and announced in a dramatic address that after long and urgent consideration he had determined to withdraw his plea of not guilty and enter a plea of guilty. He asked that the jury be dismissed and the trial abandoned.

The specific charge to which Abraham Ruef pleaded guilty was that of extortion of $1,175 from the proprietors of the Delmonico French restaurant to secure a renewal of their liquor license which had been revoked because they served drinks in private rooms. The case was based on only one of many other indictments against Ruef, each charging a similar offense. Ruef claimed that the money was given him voluntarily as an attorney fee.

In pleading guilty Abe Ruef made an impressive address to the judge, stating that he had commenced his career in politics with high ideals, for himself and for the city, but that conditions had broken him down and he desired only an opportunity to make reparation and restore his character before the world. As he concluded, his address he fell back into his chair almost fainting and the tears coursed down his cheeks. His health, he said, could not endure the strain of the trial which he was facing and the torture was beyond the endurance of those who were nearest and dearest to him.

Ruef arose and went out of the courtroom with Detective Burns. The two walked to the corner of Sacramento and Webster streets, where they entered an automobile and drove to the house on Fillmore street, which is Ruef's prison.

Ruef issued a statement later in which he said: "I changed my plea to guilty, yes; but I pledge you my solemn word that I am as innocent as you are. I have been guilty of cunning at the corruption of municipal officials by corporations, but I am not guilty of extortion. I have made no confession. I know much. Some things I shall tell, some things I shall not tell. Whenever an innocent man has been forced into corruption against his will, that man I shall protect. Whenever a man, be he high or low, has entered into corruption with his eyes open, that man I shall expose. I will not say at the present moment that Mayor Schmitz is guilty of the charges that have been brought against him. I will say this: I wanted to break away from Schmitz before his re-election a year ago last November."

While in consultation with his attorneys Ruef fainted. His condition was regarded as serious but he soon survived. He was trembling and pale, however. His attorneys grouped about him in a vain effort to cheer him up.

San Francisco, May 16.—The confession of "Boss" Abe Ruef, which caused a sensation Wednesday will result in the conviction of some of the prominent grafters, according to officers who are in close touch with the graft cases.

Although Ruef would not admit that he had made a direct confession involving anyone, it is learned that he has furnished Detective Burns with information which will lead to important results. The details of this confession are carefully kept secret, but it is known that he covers all his career as a political boss, dating back some years to the time when he first came into power.

It is given out by the graft prosecution that Ruef's confession will convince Mayor Schmitz on all the charges of accepting bribe money from the United Railroads and other public service corporations, of all petty graft in the municipal departments, the police graft, the saloon license "hold-up," and all small stealings of the people's money of which the mayor has been accused.

Columbus, O., May 16.—It was stated that not before the fall of 1908 will the state tuberculosis hospital at Mt. Vernon, O., be ready to receive patients. The people are in continual fear, all kinds of business is being absolutely neglected, with the exception of such transactions as will provide them with a hand to mouth existence.

CHINAMAN AND WHITE WOMAN

FROM COLUMBUS' MAY ATTEMPT TO BE MARRIED IN NEWARK.

License Would Have to Be Procured in Franklin County for the Ceremony.

A special telegram from Columbus to the Advocate on Thursday said that Sung Soon, a Columbus Chinaman and Miss Irene Kimes a white woman, would come to Newark during the day for the purpose of being married.

As the Ohio law directs that the marriage license must be secured in the county where the prospective bride resides, no application for a license in this case could be honored in Judge Brister's court and it is probable that Mr. Soon will come armed with the necessary legal paper if he comes at all.

Inquiry at the offices of the justice of the peace and Mayor McCleery as well as at other places about town where the couple might be married failed to reveal their presence.

The local Chinamen say they know nothing of Sung Soon's contemplated wedding.

"If the Chinaman should present himself with Miss Kimes and ask you to officiate at their marriage would you do it?" was a query put by the Advocate Thursday to Justices Nash and Lake and to Mayor McCleery on Thursday afternoon.

"Squire Lake: 'If they have a license duly signed by the Probate Judge of Franklin county, I should marry them. I would have no other course in the matter, unless I just merely refused to officiate.'"

"Squire M. O. Nash: 'I would marry them if they had a legal license, properly indorsed.'"

Mayor McCleery: 'I would marry them if they had the proper credentials.'"

GERMS IN THE SKIN SCIENCE IN PURSUIT

Eczema Sufferers Will be Interested in a Pamphlet on Diet, Exercise, Etc., Which May be Had Free at Hall's Drug Store.

The eczema germ is a curious parasite. Scientists accustomed to the daily use of the microscope find difficulty in detecting it.

A careful study has shown that there are several varieties, each, of course, feeding on the skin, causing the different diseases of eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, ringworm, dandruff, etc. The germs are all of the same type and the ailments they produce are all eczematous, though the symptoms vary.

The germ lives only in the skin, and multiplies where the skin is weak and susceptible. It feeds on the only substances, developing at the rate of thousands and tens of thousands daily. Nature combats them but if the skin is weak the germs must be destroyed by an external remedy.

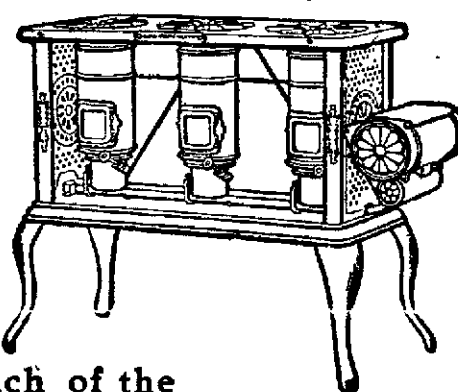

Oil of wintergreen properly mixed with other soothing ingredients is the best remedy yet found for all kinds of skin trouble. But oil of wintergreen alone will not suffice, and it is only when properly combined—as in D. D. D. Prescription—that we get a liquid that really cures while INSTANTLY relieving the itch.

D. D. D. Prescription is a mild, soothing liquid made for a number of years by a Chicago company. It is no ordinary patent medicine and we thoroughly investigated the merits of the remedy before recommending it to people in our town. F. D. Hall, druggist. Call at our store and we shall be glad to show you a bottle of the remedy, and no matter whether you buy the remedy, we will be glad to give you a pamphlet free of charge, this pamphlet, telling about the diet, exercise, clothing and other treatment required for skin sufferers.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Cleaning of Cars.

Mr. J. E. Muhlfield, general superintendent of motive power of the B. & O. railroad, and Mr. John Hair, superintendent of motive power of the B. & O. S. W., with the approval of General Managers Fitzgerald and Bent of the respective roads, have issued instructions to all employees in his service having charge of the cleaning and fumigating of the roads' passenger equipment, with the object of giving all possible protection to the general health of the passengers.

The instructions provide that such equipment must be thoroughly cleaned after a long trip. When it is known that a car has contained a passenger suffering from any contagious diseases, such as coughing, consumption, smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, etc., the rules require that it be fumigated and all upholstery and carpets renovated.

Aside from being cleaned after each trip, the instructions also stipulate that all cars used in through and local traffic be fumigated once a month. It is also provided that the cars used in transporting immigrants be very carefully fumigated and disinfected. When a car is found to be infested with vermin all the trimmings of the seats and all carpets used in the aisles must be burned and replaced with new material before leaving the shops.

Close attention is also given to the sanitary condition of the water coolers on all cars, and the orders are to have them flushed after each trip and washed out with a weak disinfectant.

Steel Passenger Cars.

An order for a large number of passenger cars, constructed of steel, recently placed by the Pennsylvania railroad, is a move in the right direction. Such cars would be much less liable to be crushed in a collision than cars constructed mostly of wood, and the danger of cremation of passengers in a burning car would be obviated. All such measures calculated to lessen the danger to life and limb will meet the hearty approval of the traveling public.

1865—Duke of Hamilton, twelfth of his line, died in Algiers. Admiral John J. Almy, U. S. N., retired, died in Washington; born 1814. Peter H. Burnett, first governor of California, died in San Francisco; born 1822.

U. S. Public Lands.
The opposition in the west to the policy of the administration regarding the public lands has led to the calling of a meeting at Denver on June 18, "to adopt some representative public policy concerning public lands." Already nine governors of western states have accepted the invitation to appoint delegates and there are still five other states to hear from and it is expected they will prove favorable.
The principal objection to the Roosevelt policy appears to be the creation of vast forest reserves and the holding up of final homestead entries. It must, however, be remembered that the gigantic land frauds have forced the administration to take radical action to preserve the remaining timber and coal lands from being absorbed by corporations under the form of law, but in many cases in a fraudulent manner. Perhaps these representatives of the western states can devise amendments to the land laws that will protect the government and settlers alike.

THIS AND THAT

The colored brethren of the Republican party held a state conference at Columbus yesterday and passed resolutions condemning Roosevelt and Taft and booming Foraker for all that he wants. But how will the brethren stand when they are forced to face the third term issue? That's the question.

Bessie Johnson, daughter of Cleveland's Mayor, separated from her Italian husband after a six weeks' trial. She says she could endure him no longer. He was haughty and she refused to be bossed.

Mr. Corey's decision not to marry the actress on the 13th may go to show that he has superstitions that he may not live happy ever after with his new wife.

The famous goosebump weather prophet is dead. The spring we have been having was too much for him.

Philadelphia clergymen have started a controversy over the question whether a hen "sits" or "sets." They might compromise by using an incubator.

Senator Platt regrets that he made Roosevelt Governor of New York. He must feel, however, that he made a greater mistake when he shelved Roosevelt on the Vice Presidency.

Notwithstanding the weather conditions there was a very good market on Wednesday. There was, however, a lack of home grown produce, but this will be remedied in a week or two. The season for produce has been delayed on account of the backward spring.

Things are getting so hot in Republican circles that certain leaders will be compelled pretty soon to shed their winter flannels.

After all a dollar doesn't seem like a big price to pay for a bushel of wheat when it takes almost that sum to purchase three pounds of butter.

These Ohio Republican leaders who are booming Taft in the interest of the Roosevelt third term, will sooner or later be compelled to come out square and notify the rank and file of the party. They can probably keep up the deception during the busy spring season, but not much longer.

STORIES AFLOAT THAT CORTELYOU IS UNDERMINING

The Boom of Secretary Taft by Means of Shrewd Manipulation of Federal Patronage.
Washington, May 16—Stories that Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou has been quietly undermining the Taft boom through manipulation of federal patronage, especially in the south, and that he is jockeying for the presidential nomination next year for himself, are not believed here. Secretary Cortelyou is one of President Roosevelt's closest advisers and has never before been accused of disloyalty to his chief.
There is no question however, that Cortelyou is seriously considered as available presidential timber, not for 1908, but for 1912. His work as an administrative officer in three cabinet positions, as well as secretary under two presidents, makes him more familiar with the business of the government than any other man in public life.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, O., May 16.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Railroads have been prominent as buyers during the past week, the most important orders placed being 167,000 tons of open-hearth rails for the Herriman lines taken by a Tennessee interest, 142,000 tons for the Pennsylvania, 28,000 tons, mostly for Pacific coast lines, were placed at Pittsburgh 70,000 tons for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and 45,000 tons for Burlington taken by the Illinois Steel Co. Heavy inquiries for shapes for railroads are also pending.
Agricultural interests have been more active in placing orders for steel bars, although on account of not having received concessions, they do so very reluctantly. There is danger of a shortage in the supply of steel bars, and sellers declare that buyers will be fortunate if they are able to cover for their requirements. Similar conditions apply to other lines, especially to plates. Bar iron continues weak and is selling at a very small advance over steel. In tin plate and sheets orders for normal tonnages are being received and specifications are extremely heavy.
Coke is still weak and contracts have been made at lower prices than those recently quoted. Prices of old material are irregular and the market is generally weak, but improvement is noted in Chicago.

IT TAKES A GOOD DRIVER TO HIT ALL THE HOLES.

CHIEF SHERIDAN STOPS RUNAWAY IN MT. VERNON

BRAVE AND QUICK ACTION ON HIS PART BRINGS FORTH PRAISE.

Brought Team to a Standstill Just as It Was Dashing Into a Crowd of Pedestrians.

Chief Sheridan, while in Mt. Vernon, Wednesday, performed a service which should entitle him to a Carnegie hero medal. He stopped a runaway team in its mad flight, and saved the driver of the rig from serious injury and probable death. A special from Mt. Vernon gives the following account of the accident:
A thrilling runaway occurred on the public square at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in which Clarence Brophy had a narrow escape from being seriously injured or perhaps killed.
The boy was driving a team and wagon the property of E. I. Secor. On the east side of the square one of the horses slipped on the street car track and in some manner the tongue pulled out of the yoke, causing both animals to run away. Down across the square came the runaway team at a terrific rate of speed, young Brophy trying to check their flight, but to no avail.
One of the horses was run over by the wagon and badly injured.
Among those who saw the accident was Chief of Police Sheridan of Newark, a former resident of Mt. Vernon. Chief Sheridan gave evidence of considerable training in capturing runaway horses by quickly getting into action when he saw the team getting a start after they had freed themselves from the wagon. He was at their heads in a moment, and, although he was carried off his feet, he brought them under control. He was highly complimented by those who saw his brave act.
Several vehicles and a number of pedestrians had narrow escapes from being run down.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

LARDER LAKE DISTRICT have proven both rich and permanent.

This new camp is located only sixty miles north of the now famous COLBAT SILVER district, and about eleven miles from the nearest point on the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway. It is expected that a branch will soon be built to the camp.

COLBAT startled the mining world with its wonderful deposits of silver, and as silver is found in COLBAT so GOLD is found in the LARDER LAKE territory.

The GOLD ore bodies are so enormous and rich in the LARDER LAKE DISTRICT that old prospectors and engineers, after a personal visit to the camp, almost to a man pronounce it the most wonderful Gold discovery the world has ever seen. Some of the Gold values run as high as $18,000 to the ton.

A NEWARK CASE.

Many More Like It In Newark.
The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Newark. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you can not ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.
C. L. Starr, harnessmaker, of 89 Hancock St., Newark, O., says: "My confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney and backache remedy is unbounded. In recommending this preparation I speak from experience. For years I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and backache and could get no relief. I had a miserable aching pain in the loins and my back was lame and weak. It was just as bad night or day and when I attempted to stoop or pick up anything a pain would strike me in the back that almost made me fall. If I remained in one position for any length of time and then moved quickly the pain stabbed me like the thrust of a knife. I suffered in this way for years, and all the remedies that I tried failed to help me. I was just as bad as ever when I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store, and you may believe that I was delighted when the first few doses brought me relief. In less than forty-eight hours the backache was gone and I continued the treatment until entirely free from my old trouble. My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and they did the same for her, and neither of us have had any return of kidney trouble since using them."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

There was more than one robin's nest in which the pretty colored eggs got chilled so severely in the early May freezes that they will never hatch out the much loved songsters.

The recent cold and rainy weather has had the effect of making it late in getting some of the crops out this spring. The growing wheat looks fine in this part of the county, and some choice fields of early oats are up nice. Pasture is very backward, caused by the cold winds, and many farmers are running short of fodder for the cattle.

FEIGNED ILLNESS TOOK $2000

WOMAN TRACED BY POLICE OF MANY CITIES SAID TO BE IN NEWARK.

Officers of Local Police Department. In Plain Clothes, Went To Columbus To Secure Evidence.

Traced from city to city, with the police of Philadelphia, Columbus, Newark, Detroit, New York and Findlay on her trail, to say nothing of the man she robbed, Bernetta Lower, alias Bernetta Maud Grubb, a beautiful actress, was last seen in Columbus according to the information now in the hands of George Molnor of 328 South Seventeenth street, Philadelphia, who is in Columbus.

It was while Mr. Molnor and the Lower woman were boarding in the same apartment house in Philadelphia, that she skipped out with $2000 belonging to him and which she stole from a trunk. The couple were going out walking during the afternoon and the woman knew that Mr. Molnor had the large sum of money in his pockets. Mr. Molnor did not think it safe to carry the money and when he reached the sidewalk asked his companion to wait while he went back up and deposited the cash in his trunk.

When he came back, Miss Lower pleaded illness and said that she had a pain in her stomach. She said she would remain at home and that he should bring her some brandy when he returned from his trip. She said that he need not hurry. When Mr. Molnor came back about an hour later with the brandy, the sick woman was gone and the $2000 which he left in the trunk was missing. She came direct to Columbus, according to information obtained by Mr. Molnor, and is now supposed to be at a Newark hotel.

She went to Findlay and from there came back to Columbus; then she disappeared. In her apartments at the Philadelphia house were found letters signed "Jack" and a card of J. E. Clifford, manager of "Custer's Last Fight," which appeared at the High street theater about seven weeks ago.

Bernetta Lower is very beautiful and her style will attract attention in any crowd. She is of a blonde type weighs about 150 pounds and is about five feet seven inches in height.

Her real name is said to be Bernetta Maud Grubb. She married a handmaster named Lower, and was divorced from him.

One of the local police officers in plain clothes was detailed Thursday morning by Chief Sheridan, who was given a tip that a woman who registered at one of Newark's leading hotels, was the woman who was wanted, to go to Columbus and get a photograph of Bernetta Lower as well as any other information bearing on the case.

In the meantime the hotel was under surveillance and any attempt on the part of the suspected woman to leave the city, would have been apprehended.

COSTLY EXHIBITS AT EXPOSITION

ARE TO BE SEEN IN PALACE OF TRANSPORTATION AND MACHINERY.

Big Building at Jamestown Nearly Completed and Exhibits Are Being Put In Position.

(By John T. Maginnis)

Norfolk, Va., May 17.—The Palace of Machinery and Transportation at the Jamestown Exposition, which was not ready for the opening day is now fast filling up and exhibits which have been installed are of so costly and distinctive a character that the building promises as a whole to excel in interest all that was planned and hoped for.

Conspicuous by size at first glance on entering the great building are the exhibits of the Pennsylvania railroad, the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, the Pullman company, and the Allis-Chalmers Co.

The Pennsylvania's exhibit has the center of the great hall, its crowning feature being a section of the iron tube, twenty-two feet in diameter, used in the construction of the East River tunnels. The section shown consists of two rings of two feet width, each containing eleven segments, all bolted by means of heavy flanges. The two is of two-inch cast iron. It stands in chocks, and with accompanying concrete work constitutes a cross-section model of the tunnel. When the exposition is over it will be taken back to New York and placed in the tunnel.

Within the tube is an inner heavy tube of concrete, while on a stone-ballast roadway is one set of tracks and a third rail for the electric current. Either side the tracks are galleries for electric wires, telephone and telegraph on one side and high-tension wires for power supply on the other.

Near this exhibit is a model section of the tunnel, showing refuge niches for trackmen, and ladders leading atop the side galleries.

Not less interesting than these is the topographical model of the entire Pennsylvania tunnel system at New York, extending from the New Jersey portals under Jersey Heights under the North or Hudson River under Manhattan Island, under the East River to the Long Island portals on the tunnels, a distance of 5.5 miles. There are two tubes under the North River and four under the East River. Those under the North River are six thousand feet long, and those under the East River are 5,700 feet long.

Beneath this model are cross-sections showing the character of the tunnels at different points and the material through which they are cut. The top of the river tunnels are 70 feet below the surface of the water at mean high water. Above the model; in fact, a part of it is shown a large section of the city of New York in miniature, with all of the conspicuous buildings and steeples easily recognized. The center of attraction, however, is the Pennsylvania's new station between 13th and 33rd street, and 7th and 8th avenues, 430 by 780 feet in area, and with tracks 60 feet below the surface, while the walls of the handsome doric structure rise 60 feet above the pavement, and the roof in the center above the general waiting room rises 150 feet.

A model of the bulkhead system of tunnel building shows just how the tunnels are bored through rock, mud and water, from within the bulkhead. The Pennsylvania Road exhibit cost $50,000.

Near this central exhibit is the first all-steel and non-inflammable Pullman drawing room sleeper, a thing of beauty that glistens in its highly polished sides.

The Chesapeake & Ohio displays a locomotive and two cars of its F. V. Flyer. The first car is of the combination baggage and passenger type, and the other is a very fine day coach.

The Allis-Chalmers Co., shows pumps, dynamos, a model of the steam turbine which now attracted so much interest, a rock crusher, and a band mill such as is used in the red wood forests of the Pacific coast, and is now being introduced among the pine lumber camps of the south.

The Shelby Steel Tube Co., of Pittsburg, has a booth constructed entirely of tube and shows a variety of seamless tubes and an attendant explains the process of making them. The product of this company includes flues for locomotives and marine boilers, and among other things parts for automobiles. A feature of the exhibit is a table the top of which is ornamented in mosaic by the use of the ends of various shaped pipes and covered with plate glass.

A day or two will see the completion of the exhibit of the General Electric company, which will be one of the largest, most important, and most imposing of the features of the building.

MOST EVERY WOMAN.

Longs for beauty. If Nature has endowed her with a bonny, pleasing face she is a fortunate woman. But no matter how well-formed the features may be, unless the skin is clear and the complexion good, beauty loses its charm. The complexion depends on the health; if the health is bad the complexion suffers. No remedy has been found to equal Black-burn's Castor-Oil-Pills, as a pleasant physic, tonic and purifier; they contain refined sulphur, so valuable for skin diseases.

GIVE ENTERTAINMENT TO BANK FORCE

On Wednesday evening at their pretty home on Buena Vista street, Mr. W. A. Robbins and Misses Marie and Jessie Robbins were the charming entertainers of the Franklin National Bank force with an elaborate dinner. The banquet was in fulfillment of the promise that when the deposit at the bank should reach a million dollars, that a spread should be given in celebration. A few days ago the amount was reached and an elegant seven course dinner was served.

All arrangements were complete and dainty hand-painted place cards appropriate to the occasion, as follows: William L. Pratt, W. H. B. Hopkins, H. D. Woodbridge, John H. Franklin, Warren Suter, James K. Dawey, and Miss Katie Sm. As.

port saved him from a worse beating.

of the ninth, with Breen on base. The Three games in the O-P league were postponed on account of rain Wednesday. Newark was one of the three towns where play was impossible. At Lancaster, and Akron, the games were called off on account of wet grounds. At Youngstown they got in eight and one-half innings of play, enough to allow Mansfield to win from the Champs. Today the indications are that all games will be played, though it may warm up enough to rain by afternoon.

The Newark team leaves tonight for Youngstown where they will play Friday, Saturday and Monday. It was first planned to bring the Champs back to Newark Sunday, both teams having an open date, but this plan has been abandoned. The team will be away from home almost two weeks.

This will be the Molders' first long trip away from home. They were gone five days last week but this time they will be away twelve days. In their absence, they will play at Youngstown, Akron, Marion and Mansfield, then at home. It is probable that one exhibition game will be played.

It is highly probable that the Newark team will be taken to Sandusky Sunday for an exhibition game with the independent team at that place.
The baseball management in the laketown has gathered a fast bunch of players to represent the city and if Newark plays there they will give the locals a strong argument for honors.

Manager Berryhill is busily engaged in planning his route to Youngstown.
The manager wants to get there early in the day to have the team in good condition for the game and he does not care to travel all night, if it can be avoided. Youngstown is a hard place to reach and the team is generally fatigued with travel on the trip to Champtown, and are seldom in good trim for the game.

Being Square
With The World

If You Would Give and Get Full Value
Here's A Suggestion.

Are you getting full value out of life? And is the world getting full value out of you? In matters of business and in our relations, man to man, we are apt to be out of touch with the world to do our best—to make ourselves of full value, to be kind and in-turn, you will get full value out of life.
You can't do full justice to anything unless you feel right. And you can't feel right unless you live right. Eating right is essential to living right. Eating the right kind of food and you will not suffer. A right kind of food for you and your family, the weak and the strong, the sick and the well, the grown folks and the little folks, is Malt-Vita, that delicious, crisp, whole-wheat food.
A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malt-Vita, it's just as good three times a day. Being a pure grain product, without any foreign sweetening agent or other adultera-tions, Malt-Vita is rich in food elements—every nutritious element of the best white wheat and pure barley malt extract—intensely vitalizing.
Try Malt-Vita with cream or fruit.
There is no other food "just as good."
None that can take its place. And it's always ready to eat. No cooking. No inconvenience. All grocers, now 10 cents.

The cold weather kept the attendance in today's game down to a scant three hundred and though there is a stiff cold breeze chilling the players, both teams put up a nice practice.
Manager Berryhill sent Joe Locke, Newark's veteran twirler, into the box batters and Murphy is receiving the

WORK IN NEWARK OF INTER-NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE IS APPRECIATED.

Social Session Followed the Presentation at Hotel Jackson Wednesday Night.

A score or more of B. & O. machinists, all members of Local Union No.
10, rendered a surprise to A. F.
Serra, international representative of their organization, at the Hotel Jackson Wednesday night.

The surprise was the presentation to Mr. Stark of a silk umbrella, the handle of which was of gold and ivory; and handsomely engraved with the following inscription:
"Presented May 14, 1907, to A. F.
Serra, by members of Local Union
No. 10, B. & O. and B. & O. South western International Association Machinists, as a token of appreciation for the good work done by him in Newark, Ohio."

The presentation speech was made by Edward Kilpatrick and was neatly rendered. Mr. Stark who for some time was overcome by the action of the fellow unionists, expressed his appreciation in friendly tones, and thanked Local No. 10 through the medium present for the gift made to him. Those in charge of the presentation arrangements were Edward Kilpatrick, James Alsbach and J. F.
Pfeiffer. A social time followed.
Mr. Stark left Newark this morning for Parkersburg, W. Va., where labor affairs require his attention.

DAY'S BUSINESS
IN COURT HOUSE

In the Common Pleas court Thursday morning the court and jury took up the trial of the case of A. A. Stasel, receiver of The Newark Savings Bank
Co., vs. William E. Miller, W. C.
Christian and the estate of R. Scheidler. Plaintiff seeks to recover on a note calling for $1,610.00, dated April 1, 1900, payable to The Newark Savings Bank Co. The defendants claim the note was settled and paid in the transactions growing out of the sale of the Newark and Granville Street Railway Co., some years ago to The Equitable Trust Co. of Chicago, and that they do not owe anything on the note.

In the trial of the case the testimony of James F. Lingfelder, former cashier of the bank and receiver of the Street Railway company will be presented to the jury in the form of a deposition. Stasel; Kibler & Montgomery, Robbing Hunter.

About three weeks ago the injunction case of F. A. Bolton, city solicitor of Newark, against the Board of Public Service and Brennan & Nutter and Cramer & Richardson, contractors, on the West Main street improvement, was tried. Evidence was taken and the work was necessarily stopped until Thursday morning, when Judge Mansfield of Shelby, who sat in the case, handed down his decision by telephone, in which he dissolved the injunction which had been temporarily granted. The case was originally brought by Charles Warkins, a tax payer of the city. F. A.
Bolton represented the plaintiff and Norpeil and Kibler & Montgomery the defendants.

Mitch is a Jeweler. Mr. Clark raised the dog and taught him many of his tricks.

Mr. Clark says Mitch opens doors, pulls down the shades in his master's house in the evening without being ordered to, smokes cigars, drinks and bawls. Mr. Clark belongs to a lodge of Elks and Mitch is as good an Elk as any of the order. At 11 o'clock he drinks to the departed and then stretches home. When his master visits a bowling alley he joins in alley with his nose and veering into the gutter when the ball has sufficient speed he makes a strike or spare.

Mitch is a swimmer and last summer in Harvey Lake he held a drowning girl's head above the water until his master arrived in a rowboat.

Washington, May 16.—Oklahoma
Republicans will appeal to Attorney General Bonaparte to interpret the election ordinance of the new state constitution as a last hope of finding some legal way of calling an election for next August or September, to this purpose, a committee left Guthrie, posed constitution for the new state.

EDWARD TIFFIN—1804-1807.

Edward Tiffin, the first constitutional governor of Ohio, was born in Carlisle, England, June 19, 1776. He received a good English education and began the study of medicine, which he continued on his emigration, at the age of eighteen, to Berkeley county, Va. In 1789 he was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. In the same year he married Mary, sister of Thomas Worthington, of Charleston, W. Va. In 1796 he manumitted his slaves and, accompanied by his brother-in-law and Robert Lucas, removed to Chillicothe. In 1802 he was chosen president of the first constitutional convention. He then became a candidate for governor, to which office he was elected in January, 1803, without opposition. Two years later he was re-elected, and the office was tendered to him a third time, but he declined. The most notable incident of his administration was the suppression of the Burr-Bienertshasset expedition. At the close of his second term as governor he was elected to the United States senate. In 1809 he resigned his seat in the senate, principally because of his wife's death. He died Aug. 9, 1829.

ADVISE SELLING OUT.

An Unusually Frank Statement of Failure by a Board of Public Service.

In an exhaustive report to the city council the board of public service of Bellefontaine, O., recommended the selling of the municipal gas plant on the following grounds:

"The gas plant is no longer necessary to and does not furnish any public service.

"The mains in the principal streets are very old and will require in the future expensive repairs.

"The plant is in as good condition today as it is possible to put the present system, and to change the system will require another bond issue.

"The average price received from the sale of gas is very little if any lower than a private corporation would give to our people, but is as low as any governing board the people may elect can make and keep the plant in its present condition and meet all the requirements and pay bonds and interest, as has been the policy of the present management.

"Four years ago it was necessary to issue $15,000 of bonds to build a new holder and install coal gas bench and necessary machinery, and another issue of bonds to the extent of $12,000 to pay overdrafts in the banks, and $5,000 more to put new mains in Sandusky street before it was paved. These bond issues should have been unnecessary if the plant had been operated with a view of self support, but gas was being furnished part of our citizens for much less than cost, and the remaining citizens, even if they did not use gas, were compelled to stand a bond issue for which each taxpayer became equally responsible to get the plant on its feet. And, as history repeats itself, you will find a request in the future, as in the past, for bonds to keep the plant in condition if the price of gas is lowered, and we wish to say in this connection that with the election for members of this board almost a year in advance there are candidates who are grooming themselves today with a view of catching popular favor and riding into office on the promise of cheaper gas, and if elected on that issue and their promises and pledges are carried out you may expect a request for a bond issue, and when we realize that we are now bonded to our legal limit, how will the money be furnished? And if the plant is permitted to get in the condition it was in four years ago, what would it be worth if compelled to sell it?

"Is it right or just to tax those people who do not use gas to keep up this plant, either by taxes or bond issues, when they derive no service, either personally or as citizens from public service, from the plant? Is it right to tax any citizen to keep up something that gives him no return as a taxpayer? And, on the other hand, is it right to compel the gas consumer to build up a plant from revenues derived from the sale of gas for the people? As the people own this plant, would it not be more equitable to all the people to dispose of the plant and with the proceeds furnish a necessary by installing water mains and sewerage accommodation for all citizens? This, in our opinion, should find favor from both factions, both of whom at present have just cause for complaint."

SEVENTEEN PER CENT A YEAR.

Depreciation of the Electric Plant in a Minnesota Town—Interesting Holdup.

The burning down of the municipal electric light plant of East Grand Forks, Minn., has probably settled the question of its abandonment, which was under discussion prior to the fire. A well informed correspondent writes that "the plant has furnished a somewhat indifferent service and did not earn enough to pay the fuel and labor accounts, to say nothing about interest on investment, depreciation, etc., in spite of its charging private customers $120 a year for 1,200 c. p. arcs on moonlight schedule.

As East Grand Forks is a border town and right across the line in North Dakota (a prohibition state) is the city of Grand Forks, about 90 per cent of the business houses in East Grand Forks are saloons. Many of these got their electric lights from a private company in Grand Forks, because the service was better and the price lower, until the council passed a resolution to the effect that no saloon would be licensed unless it patronized the municipal plant.

There is a curious discrepancy between the various reports as to the value of the plant. In January the city authorities reported that the plant had cost $32,000. Three months later they estimated the fire loss at $10,000, although we understand that the plant is entirely destroyed, and adjusted the loss at $5,000, the plant having been insured for $8,400. As it was installed in 1902, it looks as though the depreciation amounted to 84 per cent in five years, or 17 per cent a year. The plant will probably not be rebuilt.

Medford's Plant Out of Date.

F. H. Farrar, superintendent of the city electric light plant, states that the plant is out of date and practically useless. According to his statement, the plant is worth about $10,000, and it would require an expenditure of $15,000 to make it serviceable, while a new plant would cost about $20,000. The majority of the council favor the employment of an electrical expert to make a thorough examination of the plant and report on the same.—Electrical World.

The country has learned that after the tumult and the shouting of a popular election cry comes the still small voice of a treasury deficit, to be made good by increased taxes.—Trenton (N. J.) Times.

DROUGHT

Responsible For Wave of Suicides Among the Wealthy.

Meridia, Yucatan, May 16.—The unprecedented drought which has parched this district, entailing enormous losses in all branches of business and agriculture, is held responsible for a wave of suicides among the wealthy and prominent classes. In three weeks there have been seven cases of suicide. News was received here that Lorenzo Ricalde, a millionaire planter, had shot himself through the heart on his estate near Motul; Juan Maldonado, a commission merchant, whose business had suffered, killed himself here, letting himself down into a well and there blowing his brains out; Ramon Molina, a merchant and land owner, killed himself in his home by swallowing a great quantity of mixed poisons.

TICKET SALE

The sale of single tickets for the various concerts of the Festival opened this morning and a good sale was made for each concert. The Schumann-Heink concert was the best seller and many seats were taken though there are still good seats left as low as $1 in price. The Orchestra seems to attract quite a good number and those who remember the concert of last year will be sure to want tickets. That Newark is interested in hearing Otto Meyer is shown by the large number of special tickets brought in for this concert. The Chorus of 250 is also to appear that night and this of course arouses much local interest. Besides these attractions the soloists from abroad are creating some comment. Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson Wilson is the favorite among singers and ranks only second to Mme. Schumann-Heink in the inquiries about the artists. That the Newark people are loyal to their own home town is shown by the conspicuous liberality with which they are supporting the Festival. If tickets to these concerts are desired they ought to be purchased at once, as the out-of-town sale has now begun and over 200 seats have now been sold to these patrons. The best tickets may be gotten by purchasing a course ticket at A. L. Rawlings' music store, or Collins' drug store. Single tickets for the Meyer concert may be secured at the latter place. There has been a big run on these and Mr. Rawlings has sold about $200 worth without any soliciting whatever. A course ticket costs $3 and is good for any seat in the house for each concert and the lecture.

The dates are as follows:

Tuesday, May 21—Lecture, Taylor Hall.

Wednesday, May 22—Concert at Auditorium by Mr. Otto Meyer, violinist; Mrs. Elizabeth Clark Wilson, contralto; Mrs. Genevieve Wilson, soprano; Cecil James, tenor; Mr. Ellis Legler, basso. Also the Newark, Granville and Pataskala choruses of 250 and the Festival Orchestra of 35. Mr. Judson, the director at Ocean Grove, will direct this concert.

Thursday, May 23—The Chicago Symphony Orchestra of 50 men, Alexander Von Felitz, director, at the Auditorium.

Friday, May 24—The great Schumann-Heink in a song recital.

The sale of student tickets will be stopped after today, as the limited number placed on sale have already been sold. For the balcony and down stairs there are still good seats on sale at the Auditorium box office, which is now open.

RESPITE GRANTED TO MURDERER

Augusta, Ga., May 16.—Arthur Glover, who created a sensation in court when for the second time he was sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Maud Dean, by exclaiming: "I'll be damned if I'll be hanged," and who tried to borrow a pistol with which to kill the trial judge, will not suffer the death penalty on the day set for his execution, May 26, a hearing on his motion for a new trial having been set for June 15. In the event this is denied, the case will be carried to the supreme court.

DEMOCRATS

ARE ENCOURAGED TO BELIEVE THEY WILL ELECT FORAKER'S SUCCESSOR.

Failure of Senator and Secretary's Adherents to Get Together Encourages Leaders.

Cleveland, O., May 16.—The rescinding of the call for the Republican love-feast at Columbus, and the consequent failure of the Taft and Foraker factions to get together, has greatly encouraged Democratic leaders throughout the state. They are of the opinion that they now have an excellent chance of electing Senator Foraker's successor if the Republican fight is not heated by the time the next legislature is elected. No claims are made that the Republicans are already beaten. The Democrats simply assert that they have a strong fighting chance, and cite the figures of the existing legislative makeup as proof.

KUROKI SAYS

That American Photographers Are Harder to Face Than Were the Russians.

New York, May 16.—New York made its welcome to General Baron Kuroki, the hero of the Japanese-Russian war. He is here as the representative of the Japanese government to the Jamestown exposition. Baron Kuroki and party were joined by Vice Admiral Ijima and staff, who came into port on the Japanese cruiser Tsukuba and Chitose. The visitors were given a banquet at Sherry's by 100 Japanese residents of the city. A reception followed which was attended by several hundred prominent New Yorkers. When a score of photographers pressed about him General Kuroki said: "The photographers are harder to face than the Russians."

DIRECT TESTIMONY

TENDS TO SHOW THAT NEGRO SOLDIERS SHOT UP TOWN OF BROWNSVILLE.

Three Witnesses Say They Saw and Heard the Soldiers Leaving the Post.

Washington, May 16.—Direct testimony connecting negro soldiers with the shooting affray at Brownsville, Tex., on the night of Aug. 13, last, was given in the investigation being conducted by the senate committee on military affairs. Three witnesses, who had heretofore told their stories on the stand in connection with the investigation of the affray made by the war department and by Assistant Attorney General Purdy at the request of President Roosevelt, were on the stand. They were Mr. and Mrs. George U. Randall and Jose Martinez.

All of them on the night of the shooting occupied houses on Garrison road in Brownsville, directly opposite the military post. All three testified to seeing or hearing soldiers leave the post during the shooting and Martinez testified that he saw the men shooting as they ran. Martinez was a clerk in a drug store in Brownsville last August and for 18 months before. He speaks very little English and his testimony was interpreted for the committee by M. E. Beall, Spanish translator for the war department.

BURGLARS MAKE A GOOD HAUL

TWO HOMES IN SHARON VALLEY ENTERED EARLY THURSDAY MORNING.

Two Pocket Books Stolen Containing an Aggregate of $74 in the Two Raids.

Burglars in Sharon Valley Thursday morning reaped a good harvest and at two homes where they succeeded in getting in. It is reported that $74 was stolen.

Some time during the early morning hours, the burglars walked in the back door of the home of Edward Claggett in Sharon valley. The house was ransacked from cellar to garret, but the only thing missed so far is the sum of $26 which Mr. Claggett had in his purse, which was in his trousers pocket.

The thief worked quietly, for Mr. Claggett placed his trousers on a chair beside his bed when he retired and the thief failed to arouse him while searching the room.

The prowler gained entrance to the house through the back door which had been left unlocked.

A better haul was made at the home of Maderia King, next door to the Claggett home. A pocketbook containing $48 was stolen from the King home and like the Claggett home, the house was ransacked thoroughly. At the King home entrance was gained in the same manner as in the first case, through the back door which had been left unlocked. The matter has been reported to the police.

Nearly one-third of Wednesday's vote numbering 12,968, was cast by a friend of one of the contestants, Miss Hannah Beaver, of District No. 10, but several other contestants and their friends cast special ballots on Wednesday. Among the young ladies so favored are Misses Neff, Goff, Raysinger, Bentz, Dair, Seward, Taylor, McMillen and Madden. Many others sent in single coupons, which have been credited to the respective contestants.

There is only one change since Wednesday in the standing of the contestants, Miss Rosebraugh advancing one point with a lead of just seven votes over Miss Duffill in District No. 6.

Miss Alice Young of District No. 6, is credited with the largest vote given any of the 30 contestants up to date. Miss Young who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Young 173 North Fourth street, has a wide circle of friends, who are interested in the Jamestown Exposition contest and they are giving Miss Young much encouragement.
